Swimming Pool Matter of Discussion

Site On Grand View Avenue Seems To Meet With General Approval

Would Make Canyon Pool a Recreation Spot for Children

Efforts to work out a swimming pool program which would command community support and supply the needs of the younger generation of Sierra Madre for summer recreation were made at a conference held Friday night in the chamber of commerce rooms. There were present city trustees and other officials, officers of the chamber of commerce and a delegation of canyon folk.

The question of restoring the old pool in the canyon was discussed at great length. The problems and complications arising in connection with flood control were aired, and the feeling of the people who collected money with the expectation of the restoration of the old pool was also expressed. The park commission recently went on record against the establishment of a permanent pool in the canyon location.

As an alternative location the city land on East Grand View Avenue was proposed. Here there is ample room, with no complications from flood control and water disposal. A strong sentiment developed in favor of this proposal.

In case the pool is to be located at the Grand View Avenue site there still was a strong feeling that the city-owned land at the old pool location should be used for playground purposes. A wading pool and sand area could be maintained, with comfort stations, which would provide a much needed recreation spot there.

Present at the conference were Messrs. Cline and Croxson and Messrs. Richards and Petzel of the canyon, Trustees Hall, Isaacs and Belohlavek, Marshall Udell, and Messrs. Humphries and Campbell of the Chamber of Commerce.

RIGHT THINKING ENCOURAGED BY 'DECENT' PRESS

Annapolis, Md.—One can have no higher ambition than to be a good reporter, Edward McKernon of the Associated Press, said in an address to the second Tri-State Interscholar Press Conference.

"Advice," he said, "is about the cheapest thing in the world, and bravest speaking, it ought to be. But if I make bold to suggest anything to you who are contemplating journalism as a profession, it is that you concern yourselves first of all with your state of mind. The important thing now is your conception of journalism."

"Journalism is the profession of observing and reflecting the facts and significance of current events. That is our mission. To know what it is. To determine with industry and exactness the facts of ever happening significance of society of today. To indicate that we must be the starting point of intelligent thinking."

"The future of society is in our keeping, for as millions read, so will they think and act. The business of thinking has been taken over by masses. If they don't think straight, we are lost. They can't think straight unless they get straight information, and by straight information I mean through the news columns of the daily press a picture of things as they are."

"In this day when the influence of the newspaper is far beyond that of any secular agency, one can not have a higher ambition than to be a good reporter."

Aged Resident Passes Away

Mrs. William Kolkenbeck passed away Wednesday night at the home of her niece, Mrs. Minnie Doak, 264 Santa Anita Court. She was also an aunt of Mrs. W. S. Pinkerton of 276 Santa Anita Court. She was 85 years of age and had been a resident of Sierra Madre about four years. The body was taken to the Ray A. Grant funeral parlors, to be prepared for shipment on Friday to Keithsburg, Ill., where services will be held.

Friends of Edward Fellows of 48 East Central will be sorry to learn that he has been seriously ill this home for three weeks.

WILL OBSERVE ANNIVERSARY OF ST. RITA

The annual observance of St. Rita's Day at St. Rita's Catholic Church, will take place on Sunday, May 22, according to announcement by Rev. Father Hyacinth. The anniversary will be preceded by a full program of preparation during the week.

Novena in honor of St. Rita will begin May 13 and continue each day until the feast, May 22. There will be a mass at the shrine altar week days at 7 and 8:30. On Friday and Saturday, May 13 and 14, devotions will be at 7:45 p. m. On Sunday, May 15, masses will be at 7 and 9 o'clock and the late mass will be a high mass. The Novena devotion on Sunday will be at 3:30.

Beginning with Monday, May 16, until Sunday, May 22, devotions will be at 7:45 p. m. On Sunday, May 22, the masses will be at 7, 9, 10 and the late mass be a high mass.

The roses will be blessed with the relic of St. Rita Sunday afternoon, May 22. It would be a great aid if the patrons would bring roses which they desire to be blessed.

Urge Trustees Retain Udell As Marshall

Petition Carries Record Number of Names Before Board of Trustees

Petitions asking the city trustees to increase the salary of Marshall and Street Superintendent A. M. Udell enough to ensure his retention in the city's service have reached rather remarkable proportions. It was the intention of the circulators to have them presented at last night's meeting of the city trustees.

Frank Hildebrandt, who started the petition, reported yesterday there were more than 700 signers. As soon as they were under way other people volunteered to assist in securing signers and soon the list was growing like the proverbial snowball.

Without question the petition is one of the largest ever circulated in Sierra Madre. Almost without exception people signed it instantly and eagerly, so thoroughly were they convinced of Mr. Udell's value to the city. A few wanted a little time to think the matter over, but no one refused outright to sign. It was one of the most remarkable expressions of good will and confidence ever seen in Sierra Madre.

Mr. Udell's resignation is not before the board. He had, however, notified the members of his intention to resign to enter the employ of a large real estate and development corporation. His salary was to be $250 monthly, whereas the city now pays him $210. It is this difference which the petitioners believe the city would be justified in making up rather than lose his services.

Last night was the time set by the trustees also for receiving sketches of proposed designs for the new city hall. Several architects had filed their sketches yesterday and others had expressed their intention to enter the competition.

Mrs. Elizabeth Walker and her daughter, Mrs. Charles Klunk, Jr., formerly of Sierra Madre, charmingly entertained at a bridge tea Tuesday. This delightful affair was given at the beautiful Spanish home of Mrs. Klunk in Pasadena. The decorations were carried out with lovely spring flowers. Among the guests were Misses Jean Woodward and Virginia Jones and Mmes. Harvey Steinberger, Guy Steinberger, Gerald Farman, Howard Lieben, Hall Perry, Ada M. Oswald, Miner Harkness, Ralph Solury, W. R. Lees, Carroll King, R. L. Fitzwilliam, J. L. Woehler, J. E. Woehler, Victor Woehler, Charles Klunk, Sr., of Sierra Madre, Miss Rita Walker and Mrs. Harriet Wright and daughter, Mrs. Howard Watson of Pasadena.

Bob Mitchell On Radio Program

Bob Mitchell was heard over the radio Tuesday night when he appeared with the Harvard Military School band. He played a piano selection, accompanied the instrumental soloists at the piano and also played tuba with the band.

A London magistrate has pointed out that in the French law an actor is not entitled to a Christian burial. In this country, on the other hand, some actors are more than entitled to it.

Cemetery Is Now In Need Of Cleanup

American Legion to Raise Money Necessary for the Work

Near Approach of Memorial Day Makes Quick Action Imperative

With the approach of Memorial Day, the need for putting the Sierra Madre cemetery into as presentable condition as possible comes to the fore. With their usual willingness to undertake responsibility in time of need, the members of the American Legion have agreed to raise the funds to make this cleanup process possible.

About $100 is needed to put the cemetery into presentable shape, according to J. N. Hawks, secretary of the association. Commander O. E. Emley of the Legion post has designated Henry M. Olsen to receive contributions for the purpose.

Unfortunately, the local cemetery was never operated on a plan which would make possible perpetual care of the lots. The lots have been sold at prices much too low to leave any margin for a perpetual care fund. Consequently it is up to each individual lot owner to keep his lot in shape. There are only a few lots left and the burden of caring for the whole tract is must too great for the association to assume.

Many lot owners have moved away. In some cases their addresses are unknown, and in other cases no interest is shown in appeals for assistance in keeping the property in good shape. That leaves the whole burden on those lot owners who do feel some sense of responsibility and on citizens who are public spirited enough to be willing to share the burden by making a contribution for the purpose.

On account of the shortness of the time, contributions should be made promptly. Remittances can be made by mail to Henry M. Olsen, or at his shoe store. Checks can be made payable to American Legion Cemetery Fund.

Many Groups Of Business Women Meet

Arcadia Business and Professional Women's club met Tuesday night for the first of several scheduled informal social gatherings at the city hall auditorium. Thirty members enjoyed the "bunko" party, after which refreshments of sandwiches and coffee were served at the card tables.

At the brief business session which preceded it, was announced that the application for membership in the federation had been forwarded, in accordance with a vote at the last meeting.

The next meeting of the club will be a dinner meeting on Tuesday, May 17, with one or more speakers present. All local women have been extended a cordial invitation to be present. A meeting place has not been definitely decided upon as yet. Mrs. Eubler, phone Arcadia 64-J will be glad to supply information in regard to these details.

The Alhambra Business and Professional Women's Club and the Secretarial Club of Los Angeles are to be hostesses for the May meeting of the Southern District California Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs Saturday.

The business session of the executive board will convene at 4 p. m. at the First M. E. church, Alhambra and East Main streets, Alhambra, and the dinner and program will be given at the same place. The dinner speaker is Dr. Robert Freeman of Pasadena. Music will be furnished by the Secretarial Club. Reservations with Mrs. Ida Bunker, 920 North Garfield avenue, Alhambra. Sierra Madre women are cordially invited to attend this affair.

Kerstings to Leave Soon for Europe

Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Kersting of Los Angeles plan to leave within a few weeks for a trip to Europe. They formerly resided in Sierra Madre and Mr. Kersting is still vice president of the Sierra Madre Savings Bank. Their many friends will wish them a pleasant tour.

PETITION FOR ROAD SURVEY IS FAVORED

In response to the petition of twenty-four property owners, the county board of supervisors on Monday ordered the county surveyor's office to determine a route for a foothill base road between Sierra Madre and Altadena. The petitioners asked that the lines be run so that the future route of such a road could be taken into consideration in the making of improvements.

The actual opening of the proposed road was not mentioned in the order of the supervisors. Nor was it requested by the petitioners. The present purpose was merely to facilitate intelligent planning for the future.

MISSOURIANS IN GREAT SPRING PICNIC RALLY

Under the auspices of the Missouri State Society of Southern California all the "show me" people will meet in Bixby Park, Long Beach, all day, Saturday, May 21. Coffee will be supplied and a program will be rendered following the basket dinner.

Glee Club to Be Heard In Big Program

Proceeds To Be Devoted to Congregational Church Building Fund

Presenting the first complete concert of the year, Pasadena High School boys' glee club will give a musical program in the Woman's Clubhouse at Sierra Madre on May 14, at 8 p. m.

The club, under direction of Mrs. Kenneth Kerans, is arousing much favorable comment in and beyond the school. Besides this concert, the club gave several numbers over radio KPSN last week. It has been requested to sing several of the same numbers in Sierra Madre that were given over the radio.

A quartet composed of Wayne Griffen and Richard Klepper, tenors, and Floyd Brehm and William Warden, basses, has been selected to present numbers in the coming program. A few vocal solos, an instrumental solo, and readings by Harold Jordan will probably complete the remainder of the program, in addition to chorus and quartet selections. All numbers will be accompanied by Raymond Kendall.

The program is being presented under auspices of the League of Youth of the First Congregational Church in Sierra Madre, and proceeds will go to the building fund of that church.

Dr. E. P. Lyon Leaves Post At Bethany

Tenders Resignation After Three Years' Service at Local Church

Resignation To Take Effect Not Later Than First of September

Resignation of Rev. Dr. Elwood P. Lyon as pastor of Bethany Church was presented at the close of the morning service on Sunday. The resignation came as a great surprise to the many friends of Dr. Lyon both in and out of the church. It was written to take effect not later than September 1 of this year, in order to give the church time to find a successor.

Dr. Lyon has occupied the pulpit of Bethany Church about three years as supply and as pastor, coming here from Pasadena. He has been ably seconded in his work by Mrs. Lyon who is also an ordained minister and who has carried on active work as Bible class teacher.

During his pastorate at Bethany Dr. Lyon has built up the work substantially, and has done a tremendous amount of pastoral work, visiting the sick and the stranger. He will be particularly missed by reason of his activity in this line.

Grady Now Dairy-ing in Van Nuys

Mr. Grady, who recently sold his dairy business here, now has the White Rose Dairy at Van Nuys. Lawrence Perry, son of Mrs. Perry of Baldwin Avenue, is with him as sales manager and is also attending Van Nuys high school.

Conference To Be Called By President

London, May 12.—Great Britain and Japan have agreed upon a program of naval disarmament to be placed before the proposed tripartite naval disarmament conference to be called at the suggestion of President Coolidge, it was reported here today.

The program, which is said to have originated with British experts, is outlined as follows: Reduction of the size of future capital ships from 35,000 tons to 20,000 tons; limitation of future cruisers to 6,000 tons instead of 10,000 tons; limitation of cruiser armaments to six-inch guns, instead of eight-inch guns; limitation of submarines and destroyers to 1,000 tons, and limitation of the personnel of the British and American navies to 100,000 men and of the Japanese navy to 70,000 men.

Chicago, May 12.—A dress for the Venus de Milo and clothes for every other piece of nude statuary in Chicago were the sarcastic suggestions made today by Judge Joseph B. David in an attack upon movie censors who are fighting to prevent the showing of a featured picture in Chicago. The picture, which was to have run in Chicago this week, was banned by censors. The exhibitors carried the fight to superior court, where a jury view judge W. E. Caylor ruled the jury was not competent to pass on the quality of the film.

Sunday is Educational Day and so the First Congregational Church will devote its evening to an appropriate program, commencing at 7:30 o'clock. Mrs. Mabel L. Crawford of Pasadena will give an address on "The Relation of the Home to the Church." She will speak particularly of how the home can co-operate with the church in its educational program.

The home of Dr. C. N. Barker was the scene of a merry reunion of former residents of Dickinson, N. D., Wednesday night, when Dr. Barker and Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. ## Mother's Day Made Sad By Fatal Stroke

Mrs. Lovell Passes Away Shortly After Arrival from East

Expectations of a joyful celebration of Mother's Day were tragically blighted on Saturday for Frank Lovell and his brother, John P. Lovell of Los Angeles. Their mother, Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Lovell of Boston, arrived by steamer at San Pedro Saturday afternoon, suffered a stroke of apoplexy within a few minutes after alighting on the pier, and passed away within a few hours.

The Messrs. Lovell had been looking forward to having their mother spend the summer with them in California. Both were at the dock to greet her and her daughter, Miss Alice Lovell, upon the arrival of the steamship Manchuria. Mother's Day festivities had been planned in her honor and a joyful reunion was anticipated.

Mrs. Lovell, who was 70 years of age, was stricken immediately after the first greetings had been exchanged. She was taken to the Seaside Hospital in Long Beach after emergency treatment had been administered, but passed away there after only three hours. After consultation by wire with other members of the family, it was decided to ship the remains to Boston at once for services and interment, which was done on Tuesday.

In addition to the three children who were with Mrs. Lovell at the time of her death, three others are now in Boston. They are Walter Lovell, Miss May Lovell and Mrs. D. W. Cardell, whose home is at Coronado Beach.

Clifton F. Farmer of Pasadena, general agent for the Union Pacific railroad, was calling on Sierra Madre friends last week and looking after the transportation of some eastern travelers. Mr. Farmer reports great interest in the special train for California Elks to the grand lodge reunion at Cincinnati July 11 to 16. Another summer trip which promises to be popular this year is the Yellowstone Park excursion. Mr. Farmer formerly resided in Sierra Madre and plans to place the facilities of his railroad more easily at the disposal of his Sierra Madre friends.

Lila Jane Wagner, 18-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Wagner, passed away on Saturday at the home of her parents in Los Angeles. Pneumonia following scarlet fever was the cause. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the Ray A. Grant chapel by Rev. Dr. E. P. Lyon of Bethany Church. Mr. and Mrs. Wagner, who formerly resided in Sierra Madre, have the sincere sympathy of their many friends in the loss of a beautiful little daughter.

Last Chance to See Flowers This Year

H. C. Parker calls attention to the Natural Wild Flower Show now in progress at West Mesa near Banning. This is one of the last opportunities of the season to see the wild flowers in their gorgeous array on such a scale.

Universal Peace Is An Easy Goal

Mrs. Jack Valley Delivers Fine Address at Meeting of Woman's Club

Mrs. Daniel Hammach Gives Interesting Talk on Late Books

"The result of an enlightened world is universal peace." This statement was made by Mrs. Jack Valley at the Woman's Club Wednesday. Mrs. Valley, who is curator of the literature department of the Eboli Club, carried her audience from humor to satire, from satire to tragedy. She traveled to China, Europe, Russia and back to the United States, in her book reviews. Her versatility, together with her dramatic ability in interpreting highlights of the various books and their authors' views, made one want to read every book she touched upon.

Mrs. Valley spoke of China and its people. She urged that members read books written by Upton Close, such as "Revolt of Asia" and "The Land of the Laughing Buddha," that they may better understand these people and their demands.

In touching on the World War, its results, etc., Mrs. Valley spoke of universal peace. She stated we could have anything we want, but we must demand it. "The great masses of men do not have to be kept from not fighting, but they do not get the opportunity of expressing their opinion."

Mrs. Valley offers the following list of books reviewed in May: The Struggle for the Rhine, by Hermann Stegemann; Napoleon, by Emil Ludwig; Wm. Hohenzollern, by Emil Ludwig; Revolt of Asia, Upton Close; Words to the Deaf, by Ferrero; In and Out of the Old Missions, George Wharton James; Roman Summer, Ludwig Lewisohn; Younger Married Set, George S. Chappell; The Orphan Angel, Elinor Wylie; The Ghost Book, Asquith; The Mysterious Affair at Styles, Agatha Christie; Red Damask, Emania Sachs; An American Saga, Carl Christian Jensen; Kingdoms of the World, by Margaret Tuttle.

Mrs. White turned the luncheon meeting over to Mrs. E. E. Bacon, vice president and program chairman, who presided in a most gracious manner.

Mrs. Daniel Hammach, district chairman of literature, gave an interesting talk on books which she recommended. She suggested a revision of the home library. She said, "Take out the old encyclopedia, which is probably worn, pages missing, etc. Place a good copy of the Bible on the shelf, one with type large enough to be read with ease; a food dictionary, Shakespeare, histories such as good books of travel which bring out past events. On science get some good books on nature, flowers, astronomy, and books on birds. On biographies she suggested "Paine's Letters," "The Life of Helen Keller," "The Life of Edison." Get some good books of poetry, the works of Galsworthy, Conrad, Booth Tarkington, Glasgow, Kathryn Norris. She spoke of a number of "best sellers" written with no good purpose whatever, but become best sellers either because of condemnation or extensive advertising. She stated that at present literature is in a chaotic state but something fine would come out of it all.

Mrs. W. C. Grutt gave an interesting talk on Child Welfare in Sierra Madre. She told of the cooperation of the city with the school in an effort to bring the health of the children to a high standard.

The members were indebted to Miss Harriet Grant, through whose efforts three lovely dog pictures, painted by Mr. Edmund Osthaus, noted animal painter, were exhibited in the auditorium. Mrs. Osthaus was a guest of the club.

A beautiful new table used on the stage was purchased with money earned through the personal efforts of Mrs. White and the club members are very happy over this possession.

Cheap Gold Now Forseen By Scientists

Washington, April 23.—To say that science looks forward to a time when gold will be as plentiful and cheap as iron or lead or any other metal that sells by the ton instead of the ounce or troy weight, would be a trifle too previous.

To say further that Secretary of Treasury Mellon has made up his mind what to do if such a thing happens would also be to anticipate somewhat.

But its only a plain statement of fact to say that atomic experts like Professor Paul Heyl, of the governments bureau of standards, and other scientists, think it quite possible we'll presently be turning base metals into gold whenever we feel like it.

How Theory Works
It's equally true that treasury officials have been asked, "Wouldn't it play the dickens with your department if gold were to become as common as pig iron?" At that At that they've answered, "It wouldn't bother us enough to be worth front page position in the newspapers."

Let's consider the atomic theory. A chunk of lead, for example, consists of a vast number of atoms. Each atom, in turn, consists of a little sun, with planets whizzing around it.

Ditto a gold atom, only, for the sake of argument, let's assume that the gold atom's sun has only 11 planets to a lead atom's dozen and that they don't whiz in the same pattern.

Our scientist takes a lead atom, knocks a planet out of it, sets the rest of them a wizzing in the right pattern and (behold!) he has a gold atom. All he has to do is to repeat this with sufficient number of atoms, and his chunk of lead's transmuted into a chunk of gold. Nothing could be simpler.

Professor Heyl undoubtedly would cry out loud at such an inaccurate, unscientific description, but it will do for amateurs.

Accomplishment Claimed
So far as this suppositious performance from being a mere crazy idea that there are reputable experimenters who claim to have accomplished it.

Science isn't altogether sure of it yet, but it thinks maybe they did. It thinks maybe it can be done, even if they didn't. In short, first class authorities accept "transmutation of metals" as within the bounds of possibility.

However, nobody—not even the experimenters who says they did it—can suggest any method of changing a chunk, say, of lead into a chunk of gold except at an expense far greater than the golden nugget's value.

May Be Done on Time
Commercially, this certainly is a drawback. Yet a time may come when it can be done at a profit—at an enormous profit. Only, of course, it wouldn't stay enormous. Naturally the price of gold would slump in proportion to gold's availability.

A yellowback would represent only its value in old iron or some such thing.

Then what would the government base its paper money on?

Ask this question at the treasury and they refer you immediately to Actuary Joseph S. McCoy, because there's no imaginable treasury problem he hasn't worked out and isn't prepared to answer.

He had this one pat, without any hesitation.

"The best thing to secure a country's currency on," he said, "is its property. 'You can't take the value out of real estate and crops and manufactures, by transmutation or any other process. That's what we base our money on—our resources.'"

"But wouldn't it cause no end of confusion?"

MADRID ACTRESS PLANS TO SELL ENTIRE ESTATE

Paris, April 23.—Raquel Meller, versatile Spanish actress, who is appearing in Madrid, has declared her intention of leaving the stage and retiring to a Spanish convent.

She has sent her servant to France to sell the estate she purchased some years ago at St. Cloud, on the outskirts of Paris.

Raquel Meller was to have gone to Hollywood to appear in a film, but legal proceedings attached to the Charles Chaplin divorce suit interfered with the production of the film, and she did not go. She has since suffered from neurasthenia.

Raquel Meller has taken high place as an interpreter of sentiment and sorrow. She is the idol of Spain, and frequently sings at the royal palace. She was educated in a convent, where she first learned to sing. She ran away when she was asked to become a nun, and was discovered eventually in a Valencia cabaret, where she sang to fishermen for pennies.

A Word that Earns Millions for California Citrus Growers

VALUABLE beyond price is a trademark, or name, which people use in buying.

As a mark of identification it enables buyers to repeat a satisfactory purchase. Thus, the producer of meritorious merchandise, by giving his goods a name, may win a preference for his line and a premium for his care.

In America "Sunkist" has become a household word. It has a value comparable to that of "Kodak," "Palmolive," "Quaker Oats," and "Old Dutch Cleanser." It is the world's best known brand of fresh fruit. More people prefer it than all other brands of citrus fruits combined. On oranges and lemons it has the significance of the word "sterling" on silver.

For 20 years grower members of the California Fruit Growers Exchange have been building this reputation and leadership by marketing only their better grades under the name "Sunkist." The uniformly good quality of Sunkist Oranges, Lemons and Grapefruit has been continuously advertised. To millions "Sunkist" is not merely a trade-mark, but a grade-mark that they invariably specify to get satisfactory fruit.

Thus "Sunkist" has won the confidence, not only of the trade, but of the public.

Consumers willingly pay a premium for this brand because of its known dependability, and dealers, because it is easier to sell. Hence, "Sunkist" invariably averages a higher price, over any period, than unknown fruit of equal grade and quality.

The good will toward "Sunkist" is an asset that has required 20 years' time and a large advertising investment to build. Yet the minute you start marketing through the Exchange your fruit shares in its value.

The California Fruit Growers Exchange is the only marketing organization which offers California growers the accumulated advantages of continuous national advertising and the use of so valuable a trade-mark.

Eleven thousand growers—three out of every four in California—now enjoy the benefits of shipping their better grades in Sunkist wrappers. You, too, can share in the added returns that come from marketing under this world-famous trade-mark if you join the co-operative growers' organization. Ask your neighbors who market through the Exchange how they value its services. Talk to the manager of the nearest District Exchange or association. Or, write for further information to California Fruit Growers Exchange, Box 530, Station "C," Los Angeles.

Oranges Sunkist Lemons Grapefruit

THE California Fruit Growers Exchange is a non-profit organization of 11,000 California citrus fruit growers, producing about 75% of the California citrus crop, operated by and for them on a co-operative basis. Its object is to develop the national and international market for California oranges, lemons and grapefruit by concerted effort, and to provide a marketing organization that will sell the fruit of its members most advantageously and at the least expense. Receipts from sales, less only the actual costs of operation, are returned to the growers. Applications are received through all of the Exchange's 201 local packing associations, or at the central office in Los Angeles.

Interesting News Notes from Sierra Madre Canyon

The Canyon Improvement Association held its regular meeting on Tuesday evening, May 10th. Vice-president E. A. Anderson presided. The matter of providing a school bus for the younger children of the Canyon was discussed. Mrs. A. M. Croxson was authorized to call a meeting of the mothers interested to obtain bids from responsible persons, to be submitted to the school board for inclusion in their budget.

It developed during a discussion of the pool that a pool in a new location would cost approximately $15,000 more than the re-establishment of the old pool in its present location. Members were inclined to favor a questionnaire to determine the attitude of the citizens of Sierra Madre on the problem. A committee was appointed to formulate a plan. The members of the organization favored the reopening of the pool in the Canyon. W. D. Richards was appointed to report their attitude to the board of trustees on Thursday night.

The bad condition of the Canyon roads brought up the old question of paving. Members present thought that some constructive step should be taken toward procuring this much needed improvement. A definite plan for obtaining signatures from owners of property was decided upon.

Mrs. Joseph P. Nash of Alta Vista Drive, was elected secretary, succeeding Mrs. Lulu Belle Taylor, resigned. Mrs. Nash is also treasurer of the organization.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Nuccio, 301 Sturtevant Road, was the scene on Sunday of a baptismal celebration in honor of baby Robert Charles Nuccio. The ceremony was performed by Father Hyacinth at St. Rita's Church. The godfather was Mr. John Ravera, the godmother, Celestina Nuccio, sister of Robert Charles Nuccio. Before the ceremony 65 relatives and friends enjoyed a delightful dinner at the Nuccio home. At night about 100 guests assembled for a barbecue supper served in the grounds, which were tastefully decorated with colored lights and flowers. Mr. John Ravera, godfather, presented the godchild with a signet ring and the godmother, Celestina Nuccio, with a wrist watch.

During the festivities the guests bade farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Julio Nuccio and family, who are leaving for a six months' visit to Italy. Julio Nuccio is a brother to the host. In honor of Mother's Day all the mothers in the party were recipients of a box of candy and a bed side lamp from the host and hostess. A feature of the celebration was a huge cake made for the occasion and presented by the godfather.

Music was furnished by Mr. Dan Cervo of Grauman's theater, Mr. Carlo Feshio, who played the accordion, and Joe Dasso and his five-piece orchestra, who provided music for the dancing. The music which was especially artistic and of an unusual nature, was much appreciated, the musicians being compelled to respond to many encores. At 12 midnight ice cream and cake were served. Tribute was paid by the guests to the cuisine, which was in charge of Mr. John Buonaguidi.

Among the guests and relatives present were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ravera and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Ghio and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Dasso and family, Mr. John Ravera and family, Mr. Martin Del Giorgio and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Gadeschi and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davidio and family, Mr. and Mrs. Capranico and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dominic Merlo and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gariglio and family, Howard Chapman, Dr. Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Viotto, Mr. and Mrs. E. "Uncle John" Daggett and wife, "Pal o' Mine," of the Los Angeles Times radio station, were visitors last Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Lighthart of Cypress Court.

Mrs. Estella B. Haskell, a Canyon resident for more than a year, left Saturday for her home in Chicago. J. Baldwin, a brother to Mrs. Haskell, also a former Canyon resident, preceded her to Kansas City.

A celebration in honor of the mothers in the party was held in and a long list of capable supporting players. It will be the feature Tuesday and Wednesday. "High Hat," the name of the hilarious burlesque on the movies, produced by Robert T. Kane for First National release with Ben Lyon, Mary Brian and Sam Hardy featured, comes Thursday only.

THE story goes that at AN ELKS jamboree a PRIZE of a silk hat was OFFERED to any man PRESENT who would stand UP AND say that he had NEVER kissed any other WOMAN than his wife SINCE being married and NOT one stood up. It is RUMORED that one of our CITIZENRY was indiscreet ENOUGH to mention the INCIDENT at home and of COURSE his wife immediately ASKED HIM why it was he DIDN'T stand up. He STAMMERED a little and BLUSHED all over and then REPLIED that he had STARTED to but just then HE happened to remember THAT he looked like the VERY dickens in a plug HAT. ## Why do women choose Silvertowns?

Do women buy tires? They certainly do. And they show a remarkable preference for Silvertowns—sold by our store.

First—they buy Silvertowns here, because women are always keen judges of value. They know how to weigh quality and price—and get the most for their money.

But with tires—one more thing is vital. Women must have dependability—and that means freedom from tire trouble.

Courteous treatment—at the time of the sale—courteous service afterwards—all combine to make our store headquarters for women drivers.

SETTLE IT SOON

Now that the swimming season is almost here again and Sierra Madre has no public swimming pool, what are we going to do about it? The community which does not have a pool nowadays is rated as a back-number, and deservedly so. It is one of the things which helps to make a town worth while, the sort of thing to which Sierra Madre ought to turn its attention more and more.

Nobody is likely to tackle the job of rushing around and collecting a fund and trying to get a pool in a hurry this season. Experience of the ladies who did such wonderful work last year does not lend encouragement to that plan. The money devoted to cleaning out the canyon pool was not wasted—but it did not get us a swimming pool. Obviously, a municipal bond issue is the only means of providing the funds necessary for a public swimming pool.

Proposals to place the pool on the city land on the south side of East Grand View Avenue have a great deal to commend them. Difficulties of the canyon flood control problem makes the canyon pool site seem inadvisable as the permanent site for a public pool. The available space is too limited for such an establishment as Sierra Madre ought to have. It is hardly likely the voters would approve the investment of any considerable amount of money for a pool and plant there. On the other hand, the Grand View Avenue site would be nearer the canyon neighborhood than it would be to any other similar number of Sierra Madre residents. The city owns plenty of land there, and soil conditions would make the water disposal a simple matter.

This brings up again the question of a park program for Sierra Madre. The News has repeatedly urged the adoption of a comprehensive park plan by the city for guidance over a long period of years. This ought to be taken up before any large amount is invested in the park development. Whatever is done in this instance ought to be planned as part of the larger municipal park system. It ought to be the first step in the development of a great recreation park on the city's water land in the arroyo. Now is the time to do some really constructive thinking along this line. The need for the pool is urgent. The thing ought to be taken up and pushed to a conclusion now while interest is keen. If we wait until next fall, then it will be put off again as something not needing immediate attention, and a year from now Sierra Madre will still be without a pool.

JULIAN BREAKS LOOSE

METROPOLITAN papers have queer ideas of news and of the intelligence of their readers. They claim to be the greatest disseminators of news in the world. Yet they overlook and ignore matters that are of consuming interest to multitudes of their subscribers. One great newspaper man defined news as "Anything that interests two or more people." That would certainly stamp as news the little monologue delivered over the radio by C. C. Julian on Tuesday night. Whether one likes or believes in Julian or not, it must be admitted that he told a story that made a multitude of listeners gasp at his temerity. He told one version of the history of the Julian Petroleum interests.

Wednesday morning's papers had not a word about the story, but printed a column or two of prepared statements evidently emanating from the new management of the Julian properties to whom Mr. Julian paid his compliments. It will be interesting to watch the "come-back." Listeners predicted that he would merely succeed in getting his broadcasting license canceled.

MAHATMA GANDHI SPEAKS

MAHATMA GANDHI, Indian philosopher and leader, has a message for America that is worth reading and pondering: "You want to see the whole way before taking the first step. You want your spiritual undertaking insured against loss. You want to eat your cake and have it, too. You will remain hungry—there is no one of you but has some ideal higher than his practice—some ideal involving sacrifice. Start to work it. Spiritual growth will come, step by step. It is not a matter of creed. Any religion will start you off if you work it. I despise a civilization concerned only with the things of the body. I pity those of you who are being led into bitterness and despair by your illusions as to what is worth while in life."

"You glory in speed, thinking not of the goal. You elevate process, rather than ultimate product. You think your souls are saved because you can invent radio. Of what elevation to man is a method of broadcasting when you have only driven to send out? What mark of civilization is to be able to produce a one hundred and twenty page newspaper in one night, when most of it is either banal or actually vicious, and not two columns of it are worth preserving? What contribution to man has aeronautics made which can overbalance its use in his self-destruction. You are children playing with razors."

ADVERTISING PAYS

When G.B.M. contributed his dissertation upon the beauties of the Ojai and the Rincon, he stirred up enough interest in the J.R.E. family to start 'em up in that general direction Saturday afternoon. Finally wound up on the Ridge Route. You know how that goes:

After the Galloping Grunion got fifteen miles of the route ironed out nicely, the Bambino began to show signs of being disastrously affected by the stormy seas, so we turbed back and galloped over to Ventura, then to Santa Barbara (next morning), back to Ventura, thru the Ojai, over to Oxnard and home via the Canejo. It really makes a wonderful trip at this time of the year. Used to think that the Middle West was in the spring-time, was the real Garden of the Gods, but it can not compare with California in May. The hills with their riot of colorings, ranging from light tan, through all the flaming yellows, through the browns and on to the deep greens, with the grayish-purple of the heather predominating in many spots, makes a picture worthy the brush of the greatest artists.

If you don't believe it is the nicest drive in the Southland at this time of the year, ask R. C. Copenhaver, who has recently been signals for left turns.

And after percolating around we come back and find (courtesy of "Humpservis") one of the most beautiful spots in Southern California right in Sierra Madre—Bailey Canyon! Every been up there? Better go right away!

The winner in a bathing beauty contest in Vermillion, S. D., will be given $50 worth of clothes. The committee must have been inspired! Even 50c worth of clothes would mean a lot to the average bathing beauty.

Truth in Advertising

Where's the young editor who wants a chance? Small salary—but enough to live on—but no better prospects. Write Times, Wallingford, Conn.—Ad in "Publisher's Auxiliary."

Well, what can a "young editor" expect?

If he wants better prospects he better apprentice himself to an oil stock promoter.

Or a theatrical magnate.

Or a moving picture producer.

Or a bootlegger!

And then they can't complain of "current" expenses.

It will probably be shocking, at that.

Anyway, folks should use wind-weights on windows.

Who pass cars on grade-curves when they can't see the road ahead.

Who "step on" it when they are going nowhere in particular.

For newspaper editors who publish all the gruesome murder-trial details in their yellow sheets day after day.

Scientist says Paddock uses 9 horsepower to run 100 yards. Well, what are we going to do about it?

The Gray-Snyder trial is no sooner off the front pages than the scientists again cause us a lot of concern. A dispute "looms" as to whether or not there are canals on Mars.

That will bother some folks more than do the floods in La.

Wot a life!

Stop! Look! Listen!!!
A New Jersey court has held that a man has a legal right to rule his home. Yes, and he also has a legal right to fight a buzz saw.—Hardware Age.

Cheer up! One of these days, when we are not expecting it, warm weather will set in for the summer. When it comes the owner will appreciate the economy and convenience of a Northland Refrigerator. We have them at bottom prices.

Someone is always denouncing football, and we suppose the only thing to do with this terrible menace is to pass laws that will take the kick out of it.

Summer Matrimony
When racking your brains for suggestion of a present suitable for that prospective June bride, just step in and look over our stock of useful articles—Pyrex, Wear-

About all the old-timers in Sierra Madre know that Acme Quality is a standard, dependable brand of paint, and that we sell it.

Others present to enjoy the hike were Mrs. Horgan's mother, Mrs. C. R. Pendergast and son Richard, of Belleflower. The day was culminated delightfully when Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Doolittle met them at the foot of the trail and drove them to their home at 274 Mariposa for 7-o'clock dinner. Mrs. Horgan is visiting her mother in Belleflower before returning to her home in Montana.

Entertained Members of Sunday School Class—

Miss Elizabeth Polsue, assisted by Miss Verna Stiles of Los Angeles, had seven members of her Sunday School class to lunch on Tuesday. Pink predominated in the decorations, as crepe streamers were suspended from the chandelier, while the place cards were artistically combined with eglis bruner roses. A most appetizing luncheon was accorded full justice by the little guests: Rose Mary Forrester, Evelyn Elkins, Nettie Washington, Dorothy Wammock, Barbara Stetson, Charlotte Butler and Clara Louise Zeller, who returned to school immediately for the afternoon session.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Welsher accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Joyner Cornes of Monrovia returned Monday from Kingman, Arizona, where they spent several days visiting Mrs. Welsher's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Seeley.

Regular Meeting of Aid Society—

The Ladies Aid Society of the Congregational Church will meet on Tuesday, May 17, in the church at 11 o'clock for the regular monthly business meeting. Mrs. H. J. Stinson who is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Gilson of 42 West Mira Monte Avenue, is taking orders for dressmaking. ### Picture Celebrities Visit Here—

They were Miss Peggy Shaffer of Hollywood who has taken prominent parts in several moving pictures, including "The King of Kings" and "Barbara Worth," and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Robinson. They are making their home on Alta Vista Drive where they will remain until June, when they expect to go to Los Angeles.

Visitor from North Prolongs Stay—

Miss Edith M. C. Ladd of San Francisco who has been spending two weeks with Mrs. Harold Allen expects to remain with Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Hawks for a month. Miss Ladd has many friends here who are pleased to know of her return visit to Sierra Madre as she resided on East Grand View about two years ago, at which time she made many close acquaintances.

Mrs. Pearl Hamilton Elliott and sons Clifford and Douglas, of Middletown, N. Y., are recent arrivals in Sierra Madre. Mrs. Elliott and sons arrived last Saturday at San Pedro, having made the trip from New York through the Panama Canal on the Manchuria. Mrs. Elliott is a well known writer and collector of minerals.

What's Doing At Theaters In Pasadena

Colorado
In "Captain Salvation" which began a week's engagement at the Colorado Theatre, Pasadena today, the task of assembling a cast for this elaborate Cosmopolitan production was one that required weeks of attention in addition to widespread search for suitable atmospheric "props." When John S. Robertson started production for the film he managed to get the necessary square rigger vessel of the period in which the sea drama is laid, but finding sailors proved a difficult task. Finally, a crew of forty men, mostly Swedes, were assembled after a search of every port on the Pacific. Among the cast of "Captain Salvation" which is from the novel by Frederick W. Wallace, are Lars Hanson, Pauline Starke, Marceline Day, Ernest Torrence and Flora Finch.

On the stage will be Fanchon & Marco's "Dancing Master" idea featuring Ivan Bankoff and Beth Carroll, world famous Russian dancers.

Strand
Adolphe Menjou as Satan, Ricardo Cortez, Carol Dempster and Lya de Putti are featured in D. W. Griffith's second Paramount production "Sorrows of Satan," which comes to the Strand Theatre on Saturday.

Florence
James Leo Meehan, publisher of the Pasadena Morning Sun, directed Gene Stratton Porter's "The Magic Garden," now playing at the Florence theater. In his honor, the week has been known as Jas. Leo Meehan week in view of the fact that he also directed "Mother," starring Belle Bennett, which played the Florence the first four days of the week. Starting Sunday, Jack Holt in Zane Grey's "Mysterious Rider" will be the attraction at the Florence for four days. It is an epic of the homesteaders' battle to reclaim the desert against the handicaps of nature and the machinations of a master crook and his gang, with a delightful love story told against a desert background.

The Pasadena
The Ruddicks will open the week-end vaudeville show at the Pasadena Theater with many new features in acrobatic dancing and singing. Billy Mann, the minstrel man, offers much funny material from the old minstrel days. Burns and Lorraine in "Sense and Nonsense" will be good for a laugh a minute. The Arnold Sisters appear in "Sharps, Flats and Steps," a speedy dancing and singing act. The feature picture will be "Hey, Hey, Cowboy!" featuring Hoot Gibson.

Sid Grauman
Chinese Theatre, Hollywood, Calif.

REALTOR FINDS HAUNTED HOUSE IS NOW AN ASSET

London, May 6.—Ghosts have acquired a commercial value. Houses that were popularly supposed to be "haunted," used to be shunned, and estate agents grew resigned to their remaining undesired on their lists of "desirable" residences. Such houses no longer stand shuddered and deserted; they are in demand. When interviewed, the manager of a large firm of real estate agents said: "Ghosts, when they are supposed to be associated with houses, are very valuable today. There are many people who are willing to make special offers for 'haunted houses,' and this sort of property is never empty long. "A traditional ghost gives a peculiar and—by some people—greatly appreciated distinction to a house. He added that even people who are not interested in ghosts are not nowadays deterred from taking houses that are locally declared to be haunted.

Declaring that the foundation of society and government in the United States rests so much on Bible teachings that they would be difficult to support if faith in these teachings should cease, President Coolidge, in a letter read to a church conference in Washington, upheld his religious views. He said that wherever the Bible had gone it had raised the standard of human relationship, and that it was ever a source of spiritual inspiration.

Fat Turkish Ladies Seek To Be Thin

Constantinople, May 6. — The Turkish women are going to great lengths in effort to attain the European figure.

The slim, exotic girls of the harem pictured all over the world as the most dazzling beauties, were proved to be very much of a myth when their veils were cast aside under the edict of Mustafa Kemal which emancipated Turkish women.

Accustomed to the veiled faces and heavily clothed figures of their women, the men of Turkey come to regard them as being of unsurpassing beauty.

But when the Turkish women stood forth unhampered by superfluous dress, their men received something of a shock. Instead of dark, lissome, laughing and vivacious girls they had expected, there were revealed women bulging with fat, whose features, which might otherwise be beautiful, were lost under billowing cheeks and double chins.

Reclining on divans day after day, eating an undieted supply of food, had wrought havoc with their figures for generations. Only the youngest girls who had not had time to degenerate into fatness approached in any degree the high standard of physical beauty which the young Turk had visualized.

The result is that the women who took the trouble to preserve their natural beauty enjoy a period of unrivalled popularity. Their bulky sisters have been pushed into the background and have consequently sought means of reducing their plumpness.

Mustapha Kemal himself organized several grand balls at which the band was specially instructed to play a large number of Charleston tunes, and the stout ladies, though at first somewhat slow to take the floor, soon recognized the "reducing" effect of dancing.

At the first "Emancipation Ball," several women were so loath to dance that stern measures were found necessary to persuade them to take the floor.

AutoStrop Safety Razor Co., 656 First Ave., New York, N. Y.

Having twice cleared 6 feet 5 inches this year, Henry Coggeshall, Trojan star jumper, is pointing toward the Pacific Coast Intercollegiate track and field championships in the Los Angeles Coliseum June 3 and 4.

For Southern California will need whatever points Coggeshall can pick up in the high jump, in that affair which settles for the first time the team and individual championships of the Far-Western America.

Coggeshall will have plenty of competition. At least four other men who have cleared 6 feet 4 inches will be in that event against him and the bar is likely to be high up in the air when the last jumper has been eliminated.

Coggeshall holds the Southern California A. A. U. record at 6 feet 5 7-16 inches. He established this mark on February 19 of this year. Since that he has gone over the bar at 6 feet 5 inches twice.

The Trojan jumper's most dangerous rival is Bob King of Stanford. King has already done 6 feet 6 inches. He is national intercollegiate champion and title holder on the Pacific Coast. King cleared 6 feet 5 3-4 inches at the I. C. 4A. last year. He holds the Pacific Coast Intercollegiate record at 6 feet 4 3-4 inches and that mark is almost certain of falling June 4 when the best jumpers in Western America vie for medals.

Another star jumper will be Tom Work, also of Stanford. Work tied for second place with Coggeshall at the I. C. 4A. last year, the height being 6 feet 3 1-4 inches. Work and Coggeshall both did 6 feet 4 3-4 inches at the National Collegiate later.

Other Hampton of California has also cleared 6 feet 4 inches. The Pacific Northwest also sends some star jumpers to this meet while other entrants will come from seventeen other institutions entered for the championships.

Reserved seats for the meet will be placed on sale two weeks before the intercollegiate. Thirty thousand are expected to be grabbed up the first week of the sale.

Still, we Californians don't deny that Florida's has it all over ours for variety.

General Butler's assertion that under the Volstead Law the rich upper crust gets liquor, and the poor go without, tallies with a recent report that the drinking has fallen off 85 per cent in Kentucky since Prohibition.

A great tide of anti-Christian feeling is said to be rising in China, the poor benighted Chinamen apparently not realizing that the average Christian is probably not any worse than any body else.

The Supreme Court's decision giving the Texas negroes the right to vote in primary elections reminds us of Judge Person's decision giving a married man the right to spank his wife. He's got the right all right, but he'll probably have to go to considerable trouble getting drunk enough to do it.

Washington writer predicts that "tension in soft-coal industry" may necessitate an extra session of Congress. Can not some compromise be made whereby Congress will strike and the miners stay in the mines?

We suppose the lawyers understand it perfectly, but what puzzles the lay mind a little is how Mr. Doheny got all his leases from Mr. Fall by fraud and corruption, but nobody's guilty.

City Asked to Complete the Canyon Pool

(An open letter to the Board of City Trustees):

May 2, 1927
I see by the local paper that the Board of Trustees of Sierra Madre have filed all mater concerning the Canyon Swimming Pool, which I suppose means a deal issue. I trust such is not the case as last August you gave me your word and assured me that you felt morally bound to put the swimming pool in operation and if necessary have the City operate it.

I understand that your reason for filling this is on account of the cost. What if it should cost $7000 to restore the pool, (which seems an unreasonably high figure to me) would you not get this back in rental? I understand that the City of Covina operate their own pool, and its revenue not only pays its own expense, but provides for the upkeep of the park.

The City Trustees sanctioned raising the fund to clean out the pool. When it was collected, the City made the specifications, accepted the money and verbally agreed to take charge of the remainder of the work. For one reason or another action was delayed on this, until at last our Chairman of this fund has called for results. We want you to thoroughly realize that this money was donated for the restoration of the pool and the donors were given our pledge for the return of their money if it was not used. Nearly every merchant in Sierra Madre contributed, and members of the Board also. I want you to understand my position — I have nothing to gain by the opening of the pool—I do not use it, I have nothing to sell, but I worked for the best interests of the children and the City of Sierra Madre.

You do not seem to realize that it took over two month's of continual effort to raise this sum; people were willing to contribute but were not always at home, and again I found many who wanted a larger pool. Upon investigation, at my own time and expense, I found that a new pool would cost around $45,000, which would be too great an expense to the City of Sierra Madre.

What would have happened to Woodland Drive and the people below if this pool had not been dredged out? But let me assure you that it was not my intention to collect this money to avoid this catastrophe, but to have a swimming pool.

Now I say to you with great solemnity to you that if this swimming pool is not re-opened, in just fairness to all donors of this money, I feel that you are obligated to return this money to them, as records have been kept of all donors.

Your action in this matter is a great disappointment to me and the least you can do if you abandon the swimming pool, is to return this money. I will explain to the donors why we were not successful—the lack of co-operation from the City.

I am sending a copy of this to both Mr. Hall and Mr. Isaacs, although they were not members of the Board at the time, they Contributed.

Kindly acknowledge receipt of this letter.
Yours very truly,
—Mrs. J. P. Nash.

Old Mother Hubbard and her New Cupboard

By Rama Bennett, Nutritionist

"He eats like a man," says father as he piles sausages and hot cakes on three-year-old Johnny's plate. Digestive stature comes gradually, as do physical and mental stature. The child is not a man, neither should he eat a man's food. He should learn early that father's food is not always his food, any more than father's clothing is his clothing. We do not put a man's boots on a 3-year-old, neither should we offer him a man's food.

The food needs of the young child are governed by natural laws. The more we understand them and follow them, the simpler child feeding will be. His best growing food is milk, not sausages. Whole grain cereals and toasted bread are far better than hot cakes. Too many "tastes" of food which adults eat can soon pervert a little child's appetite for his simple foods. Sometimes these "tastes" clog the digestive machinery, which affects its running smoothly thereafter.

Learning good food habits early is essential to good health. A child does best what interests him. He is full of play. He likes games. Make a game of health. Teach him to look at health as a prize to be had if he plays the game hard enough. He cannot play the game alone. Learning and keeping the food health rules are responsibilities for the whole family.

Old Mother Hubbard in her future articles will explain these rules of the game.

COMMUNICATION

Sierra Madre! peaceful, fragrant and pretty!
A hamlet of verdure, far from the city.

No clangor of engines, nor sirens from steeple
Assault the ears nor waken the people.

But to warn the abiders, some deem it their duty
To stir up the atmosphere and make it seem sooty.

Natures' night sounds were analyzed as miserable follies—
Cockerels and felines, quite off their trolleys.

An ordinance opposing such ecstatic out-pourings
Was forced upon the board, thru various contrivings.

Beguilements! Enchantments! A hamlet of wonders!
Is Sierra Madre becoming a city of blunders?

—Life's Orchestra.

The trouble seems to be that there isn't room in a driver for both horse sense and white mule.

Profits and Prophets

Lots of folks buy out of town—groceries, dry goods, and even real estate. There is a charm, perhaps, in straying away from the home town for bargains—but "there's no place like home" after all, and if you really want to make money in real estate—then buy at home.

All the brokers in Sierra Madre have listings, some exclusive, and the object of this little message is to put over this idea: Make money now by buying Sierra Madre property.

If you desire to talk over financial matters with me—investment problems—the door is open. The bank is opposite. The number, 24 West Central.

I have a number of copies of the Pictorial California. In this issue are a number of wistaria photos. The price is 15 cents a copy and one copy with my compliments if you mail it to a friend. This an evidence of my desire to help advertise Sierra Madre.

More improvements for this town and more efforts to improve Sierra Madre. Your ear to the ground and your eyes open—

Getting back to the trade at home idea—whether real estate or hardware—remember this: I don't sell hardware, but have some lots that money can be made out of and you should be the one to get that profit!

There are two kinds of profits—profits and prophets. In this case you rely on one and cash in on the other. Thanks!

Fire boys had a noon-time run the other day. You may be the next. Insure yours for profits.
